

Accessibility Statement for Runnels County, Texas

We want everyone who visits the Runnels County elections website to feel welcome and find the experience rewarding, going above and beyond the requirements stated in US: Section 508, of the Rehabilitation Act 1998.

What are we doing?

To help us make the Runnels County elections website a positive place for everyone, we've been referring to the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines \(WCAG\) 2.1. These guidelines explain how to make web content more accessible for people with disabilities, more compatible with assistive technology, and more user friendly for everyone.

The guidelines have three levels of accessibility (A, AA and AAA). We've chosen Level A & AA as the target for the Runnels County elections website.

How are we doing?

We've worked hard on the Runnels County elections website and we've hired certified professionals to help us achieve our goal of WCAG 2.1 Level A & AA accessibility.

The following pages/documents included in the scope of work are:

- Elections
- Elections administrator
- Global elements

The accessibility experts we've hired will conduct manual testing on a Windows or Mac computer using NVDA, JAWs, or VoiceOver, as appropriate. Proprietary software is used for all automated testing.

We will monitor the website regularly to maintain our ongoing commitment to delivering a site that is accessible to the largest possible audience. If you have any concerns about the usability of our site or find a feature that is inaccessible, please contact us using the information below. We will make every reasonable effort to accommodate requests.
