STATUE: Code Crim Proc. Art.102.0121

SOURCE: Fee not to exceed $ 500 paid by defendant participating in a pretrial intervention program administered by a county attorney. Optional, collected by the prosecuting attorney.

CONTROLLED BY: County Attorney

PURPOSE: To reimburse a county for expenses, including the expenses of the office of the prosecuting attorney, related to a defendant's participation in a pretrial intervention program offered by the county.

LIMITATIONS: Monies may only be used to administer pretrial intervention program. The money in the fund may be expended only in accordance with a budget approved by the commissioners court.

INTERPRETATIONS: GA-1039 (2014): Pretrial intervention program funds may be used to refurbish courthouse facilities, train staff, and purchase office supplies only to the extent that the expenditures reimburse the county for expenses related to a defendant's participation in a pretrial intervention program and are used for administration of the program. The commissioners court determines the reimbursement amount, subject to judicial review.

STATUE: Texas Constitution Sec 9 (b)

SOURCE: The county shall levy whatever tax rate is needed for the four(4) constitutional purposes: namely general fund, permanent improvent fund, road & bridge fund and jury fund.

CONTROLLED BY: Commissioners court

PURPOSES: This fund is used to account for expenditures and capital needs of the county that are not funded with long term debt. Projects that would fit into the criteria for this fund include acquisition and construction of captial projects, facility repairs and upgrades, major equipment purchases and technological projects. The goal of this fund is to continue to increase on an annual basis to allow for projects to be absorbed within the budget process in lieu of financing with long-term debt.
